Study title:	Learning part of a new language
Principal Investigator	Dr. Jennifer Culbertson

Nature of the study. You are about to participate in a study which involves reading and listening to words and phrases and answering questions about them. The session will take place here and you will read from the screen in front of you. Your responses will be recorded. You will also be asked some questions about yourself (e.g., age, language experience). Your session should last for between 10-20 minutes. You will be given full instructions shortly and will be able to ask any questions you may have.

Compensation. You will be paid $2 for your participation in this study.

Risks and benefits. There are no known risks to participation in this study. Other than the payment mentioned, the only benefits to you personally are those you draw from making a contribution to our knowledge about language and its use.

Confidentiality. Our records of your responses will not be associated with your name or with any other personal details that might identify you.

Voluntary participation and right to withdraw. Your participation is voluntary, and you may withdraw from the study at any time and for any reason. If you withdraw from the study during data collection (and do not submit the HIT) we are not able to pay you. If you choose to withdraw afterwards, please use the contact information below, there will be no penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.

Contact information. This research is being conducted by the above-listed researcher at the University of Edinburgh. The researchers can be contacted at jennifer.culbertson@ed.ac.uk for questions or to report a research-related problem. Contact the Linguistics & English Language Ethics committee at 0131 651 1836 or lcl.ethics@ed.ac.uk if you have concerns regarding your rights as a participant in the research.

Thank you for your help!

By accepting this HIT, you consent to the following.

1. I agree that my name and personal details will not be made public under any circumstances.
2. I agree that the anonymized data I produce may be kept permanently in Edinburgh University archives and used for the specific research project which made them.
3. I agree that the anonymized data I produce may be used by the above-named researchers, as well as by other qualified researchers, for teaching or research purposes, and in professional presentations and publications.
4. I understand that I have the right to terminate this session at any point. My data will be deleted at that time.
